

60 years and beyond: Preparing Malaysia-Republic of Korea relations for a new era

Korea-Malaysia
1960-2020

SPEAKERS

Mr Herizal Hazri

*Chief Executive
Institute of Strategic and International Studies (ISIS)
Malaysia*

Mr Herizal Hazri is known for his engagements with think tanks, civil society and governments particularly in the areas of development, democracy, countering violent extremism and contemporary ASEAN issues. Outside Malaysia, he has worked in 11 Asian countries, including Indonesia, Timor-Leste, Cambodia and Bangladesh. In 2004, Mr Herizal managed the only International Election Observation Mission for Afghanistan's Presidential Election and deployed observers to Pakistan, Afghanistan and Iran. Mr Herizal also served as a member of the International Contact Group (ICG) for the peace process in Mindanao where he assisted in efforts that led to the signing of the Comprehensive Agreement on the Bangsamoro in 2014. He was a recipient of the Draper-Hills Fellowship at Stanford University and a Chevening Scholar at Birkbeck.

HE Lee Chi Beom

*Ambassador
Embassy of the Republic of Korea
Malaysia*

Ambassador Lee Chi Beom is former Minister of Environment of the Republic of Korea from 2006 to 2007. He has held various senior appointments in the field of environment including Secretary General of Korean Federation for Environment Movement (KFEM), Head of Korea Institute for Social and Environmental Policy, and President of Korea Environment and Resources Corporation. Prior to his posting as Ambassador of the Republic of Korea to Malaysia in 2019, Ambassador Lee was the Chairman of Northeast Asia Peace Economic Association of Korea. Ambassador Lee holds an MA in Philosophy and a BA in German Language and Literature, both from Seoul National University of Korea.

Dr Zokhri Idris

*Deputy Dean
Student Affairs
Management and Science University (MSU)
Malaysia*

Dr Zokhri Idris is Deputy Dean of Student Affairs at Management and Science University (MSU). He is also a senior faculty member of the Faculty of Business and Professional Studies, MSU. His areas of research focus on the changing nature of diplomacy and sovereignty of developing nations, especially Malaysia. Previously, he served as Assistant Manager of Strategic Resources and Government Relations at Puncak Niaga Management Services. He holds a doctorate degree in International Relations, looking into the proliferation of international terrorism and states' counterterrorism policies. Dr Zokhri is a founder and partner of Eirene Research, an academic forum specialising in leadership, research and diplomacy.

60 years and beyond: Preparing Malaysia-Republic of Korea relations for a new era

Korea-Malaysia
1960-2020

SPEAKERS

Ms Farlina Said

*Analyst
Foreign Policy and Security Studies (FPSS)
Institute of Strategic and International Studies (ISIS)
Malaysia*

Ms Farlina Said is Analyst in the Foreign Policy and Security Studies programme of ISIS Malaysia. She graduated from S. Rajaratnam School of International Studies (RSIS), Nanyang Technological University with an MSc (Strategic Studies). As a part of the think tank, she has been involved in crafting various dialogues and forums on cybersecurity, radicalisation and Malaysia-Korea relations. Her written work and comments have appeared in the local and international media such as the New Straits Times and South China Morning Post. She was a part of SEARCCT's Experts on Violent Extremism and Community Engagement (EVOKE) Council (2018-2019).

Professor Hwang In-won

*Professor
Gyeongsang National University
Republic of Korea*

Professor Hwang In-won is Professor in the Department of Political Science and Dean in the College of Social Science at Gyeongsang National University. He obtained his PhD in Political Science and International Relations from Australian National University. His areas of research are political and social change in Malaysia, and regime change and maintenance in Southeast Asian countries. He has served as Visiting Professor in the Faculty of International Relations, Ritsumeikan University; Research Fellow at the Institute for East Asian Studies, Sogang University; and Senior Research Fellow at the Korean Institute of Southeast Asian Studies. His publications include "Malaysia 2019: Weakened Pakatan Harapan and Re-allied Opposition Parties" (2020); "The Political Implication of Malaysia's Electoral Authoritarian Regime Collapse" (2018); "The Evolution of Korea-Malaysia Relations" (2015); Reflections: The Mahathir Years (Washington: Johns Hopkins University, 2004, co-author); Personalized Politics: The Malaysian State under Mahathir (Singapore: ISEAS, 2003); and New Perspectives in Malaysian Studies (Selangor: Malaysian Social Science Association, 2002, co-author).

Dr Lee Jaehyon

*Senior Fellow
Center for ASEAN and Oceania Studies
The Asan Institute for Policy Studies
Republic of Korea*

Dr Lee Jaehyon is a senior fellow and the Director of the External Relations Department at the Asan Institute for Policy Studies. He is also a member of advisory groups for the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and for the Presidential Committee on New Southern Policy. Dr Lee focuses on Southeast Asian politics and international relations, East Asian regional cooperation, and non-traditional and human security issues. His recent publications include South Korea and The South China Sea (2016), A South Korean Perspective on the Potential Contributions and Limitations of the ADMM-Plus (2016), and What Asia Wants from the US: Voices from the Region (2018). Dr Lee received a BA and an MA from Yonsei University and his PhD in politics from Murdoch University, Australia.

60 years and beyond: Preparing Malaysia-Republic of Korea relations for a new era

Korea-Malaysia
1960-2020

SPEAKERS

Dr Hoo Chiew-Ping

*Senior Lecturer, Strategic Studies and International Relations Programme
School of History, Politics and Strategic Studies
National University of Malaysia (UKM)
Malaysia*

Dr Hoo Chiew-Ping is Senior Lecturer in the Strategic Studies and International Relations Programme at the National University of Malaysia. Her past affiliations and fellowships include the Korea Foundation Fellow at ISIS Malaysia (2019–2020); the US Department of State's International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP, 2019); the Korean Ministry of Unification's Institute for Unification Education (IUE) Emerging Leaders Fellowship (2018); and being a research fellow at the Academy of Korean Studies (AKS, 2011) and Seoul National University (2010). Her main research interests include Korean Peninsula issues, international relations theory, and relations between Southeast Asia and the two Koreas. Hoo's recent works include being editor of The New Southern Policy: Catalyst for Deepening ASEAN-ROK Relations (ISIS Malaysia, 2020), and a forthcoming co-edited volume (with Shine Choi and Brian Bridges) on North Korea-Southeast Asia relations. She received her PhD in Politics and International Relations from La Trobe University, Australia.

Professor Hong Seok-Joon

*Department of Archeology and Cultural Anthropology
Mokpo National University
Republic of Korea*

Professor Hong Seok-Joon is Professor in the Department of Archeology and Cultural Anthropology, and Director of the Institution for Marine and Island Cultures at Mokpo National University. He is also President of the Korean Society for Cultural Anthropology. He has served as President of the Korean Association of Southeast Asian Studies (KASEAS), President of the Korean Society for Local History and Culture, and Director General of the Korea Institute of Southeast Asian Studies (KISEAS). His research areas focus on cultural anthropology and Southeast Asia. His publications include ASEAN Can Be Post China? (2018); The Islamization of Southeast Asia II (2018); The Islamization of Southeast Asia I (2017); The Cultural Exchange between Malaysia and Korea (2013); and Southeast Asian Perceptions of Korea (2011).

Mr Harris Zainul

*Analyst
Economics, Trade and Regional Integration (ETRI)
Institute of Strategic and International Studies (ISIS)
Malaysia*

Mr Harris Zainul is an Analyst at the Institute of Strategic and International Studies (ISIS) Malaysia. His research portfolios include: Southeast Asian and Malaysian politics, human rights, and democratisation; China's Belt and Road Initiative (BRI); ASEAN-Korea relations; and the geopolitics of the Mekong River. He had served as a Minister-appointed member of the National Youth Consultative Council of Malaysia, a Minister-appointed member of the Youth Task Force on Foreign Policy, an elected member of the Malaysian Youth Parliament, and the Special Officer and Perdana Fellow to the Deputy Prime Minister of Malaysia. He holds an MA in International Studies and Diplomacy from the School of Oriental and African Studies (SOAS) in London and a Bachelor of Laws with Honours (LLB) from the University of Liverpool.

60 years and beyond: Preparing Malaysia-Republic of Korea relations for a new era

Korea-Malaysia
1960-2020

SPEAKERS

Dr Ko Young Kyung

Senior Research Fellow
Department of Accounting
Sunway University, Malaysia
Republic of Korea

Dr Ko Young Kyung is Senior Research Fellow at Centre for Accountability and Governance Research, Sunway University Business School. Since receiving her PhD in Finance from Korea University, she has been teaching finance and conducting research work at institutions in South Korea and Malaysia. She is the author of Future Growth Market ASEAN, the first Korean book to analyse business environment, industry and market trends with many business cases in ASEAN Economic Community. This book was selected for the 2019 "Sejong Academic Book Award". Dr Ko has published papers on equity offerings and payout, corporate governance, family control succession, and capital markets development. She has conducted research on directors' remuneration, corporate reforms and mutual fund performance in Malaysia, and emerging and frontier markets. She introduces the current issues of Southeast Asia to South Korea via various lectures, interviews and article series, namely "Dr. KO's Frontier Markets View" and "Southeast Asia Corporation Series".

Ms Sumathy Permal

Fellow
Head of Centre for Straits of Malacca
Maritime Institute of Malaysia (MIMA)
Malaysia

Ms Sumathy Permal is a Fellow and Head of Centre for Straits of Malacca at the Maritime Institute of Malaysia. Ms Permal is on the editorial board of Australian Journal of Maritime & Ocean Affairs and Associate Member of the Corbett Centre for Maritime Policy Studies. She is a Professional Fellow On-Demand Exchange Program by the US Department of State for Think-Tank in Asia. She is also a member of the Education Advisory Board, Asia-Europe Institute, University Malaya. Her research areas include maritime security developments and strategies in the Asia, Pacific and Indo-Pacific region. Her current focus is on strategic and defense issues and non-traditional security in the South China Sea and the Strait of Malacca.

Dr Lee Jae Yong

Director
Smart City Research Center
Korea Research Institute for Human Settlements
Republic of Korea

Dr Lee Jae Yong is Director of Smart City Research Center, Korea Research Institute for Human Settlements (KRIHS). He obtained his PhD from Ohio State University. He is a smart city and GIS expert, and has supported the Korean government's smart city policies, comprehensive plans and legal system since 2008. He was in charge of researching on the 1st, 2nd and 3rd smart city national plan as well as legal system constructions, and has participated in more than 60 smart city projects. He was an expert advisor of the Presidential Council for Future and Vision (2010-2011) and a committee member of the Presidential Committee on the Fourth Industrial Revolution (2017-2018). He is currently a committee member of the Korean Smart City Special Committee and the ISO/TC 268 Standard Committee. He is also Vice Chairman of the Seoul Smart City Committee.

60 years and beyond: Preparing Malaysia-Republic of Korea relations for a new era

Korea-Malaysia
1960-2020

SPEAKERS

Dr Fahmi Ngah

*Managing Director
Smart Selangor Delivery Unit (SSDU)
Malaysia*

Dr Fahmi is Managing Director for the Smart Selangor Delivery Unit – the Selangor State entity mandated to plan and deliver initiatives under the Smart Selangor Smart State Programme. He holds a first-class honours degree in engineering and a PhD in Aeronautics from Imperial College, London. He was a Perdana Scholarship holder and was also awarded the prestigious Tun Ismail Ali Award for the Best UK graduate from the British/Malaysian Society, and the National Youth Award from the Malaysian Ministry of Youth and Sports. He served the UK Defence Research Agency (now QinetiQ PLC) as Senior Technology Consultant for Aerostructures and Computational Probabilistic Methods where he led several European aerospace research programmes on behalf of the UK Defence and Science Technology Laboratory. He later joined the UK corporate sector, namely British Energy and EDF Energy, as Front Office Senior Quant. His last position within the corporate sector was Head of Commodity Trading and Structuring in CIMB Investment Bank Malaysia.

