MEDIA RELEASE

PRAXIS 2018 ECONOMIC SEMINAR #GAMECHANGERS2019

4 OCTOBER 2018

NUSANTARA BALLROOM, SHERATON IMPERIAL KUALA LUMPUR

Kuala Lumpur, 15 August 2018 – The Institute of Strategic and International Studies (ISIS) Malaysia is pleased to announce that its highly regarded Praxis Economic Seminar makes a return this year. With the tagline #GameChangers2019, the Praxis Economic Seminar will bring together experts, scholars and opinion-shapers from across the region to engage in robust and constructive discussions on a wide range of issues spanning economics, business and politics.

Praxis is the point at which knowledge or thought becomes action, and this seminar aims to sensitise business leaders and policy-makers to the issues in the year ahead by equipping participants with novel, information-rich analyses and views in an interactive environment in order to assist them in their corporate planning and business growth strategies, as well as in designing and shaping policies.

Panels at the Praxis economic seminar include (1) the macro prospects, strengths and vulnerabilities of the Malaysian economy, (2) raising the game of Malaysian manufacturing and services in an era of new enabling technologies, (3) how Malaysian exporters should navigate in an age of increasing protectionism and bilateralism and, (4) government policies and priorities in 2019.

There will be speakers from the Council of Eminent Persons (CEP), the Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI), the Malaysian Industry Government Group for High Technology (MIGHT), the Malaysian Digital Economy Corporation (MDEC), Employees Provident Fund (EPF), the World Bank Group, the European Union-Malaysia Chamber of Commerce and Industry, and Asia Trade Centre, among others.
